Listen to the band play "Star Spangled Banner" at Paint Lick, Tuesday, the fourth.

Between the call of our county and the call of the factory, this is no time for the idler.

Last week was an ideal one for harvesting and the bulk of it was finished in the country.

Next Tuesday is the "Glorious Fourth," the banks will be closed, the post office will observe holiday hours and there will be no rural delivery service.

Between the reckless driven automobiles in daytime and the one without lights at night, the pedestrian is kept ever on the alert for fear of being run over.

There will be something doing at Paint Lick, next Tuesday. There will be a band on hand and something doing every minute. Read the advertisement in this issue. "Meet me there."

Barley is being threshed and with suitable weather, the wheat threshing will follow rapidly and the small grain will be out of the way enabling the farmer to give all his attention to his corn and tobacco.

Under the newly enacted laws only hook and line fishing is permissible. The "spodger" and those who are accustomed to drag a big seine when the river gets low had better be careful. The eye of a most vigilant game warden is upon them.

With an abundant blackberry crop in sight sugar is too high to allow sugar in coffee, much less unlimited blackberry jam. However, the far seeing housewife will can the berries and make jam of them when sugar goes down, if such a thing should come to pass.

CLOSE CALL.

Master James Gregory, son of Mr. and Mrs. Parker Gregory, while shooting sparrows with a twenty-two rifle last Monday, one of the balls glanced and struck Mr. Bob Scarbroth who was standing some little distance away. The small bullet only penetrated the clothes however and aside from a sharp sting in the back, he was not otherwise hurt.

LIGHT COURT DAY.

Monday was one of the lightest court days ever seen in Lancaster, farmers being too busy to come to town, consequently the crowd was small and business dull. Several horses were purchased for war purposes at $90, to $127.50. A few mules exchanged hands at $87.50 to $138.

Politics was at low ebb, neither Helm or Montgomery being present.

INDIAN RELIC.

Mr. Dave Pullins, who lived here some eighteen years ago has been on a visit to his old home and his friend, Mr. Jack Adams. Mr. Pullins showed us a most interesting Indian relic found at Berea. It is an arrow made out of an opaque stone showing a perfect Indian head when held up to the light. We have never seen any other arrow made of this kind of stone.

THE REASON WHY.

Why is it that BATSON & WEST are selling
GOODS SO CHEAP?
BECAUSE they buy for CASH and sell for CASH.
BECAUSE they take all discounts.
BECAUSE they have the lowest rent.
BECAUSE they have no clerks to pay.
BECAUSE they do their own work.
THAT IS THE REASON.

CLOUSE.

Mr. Irvine Clouse died at his home at Coy Ky, June 1, 1916.
Mr. Clouse was a devoted member of the Christian church, having become a member of the Scotts Fork church at an early age in life. He was a honest, upright man and loved by all who knew him. He was 53 years old at the time of his death. He is survived by a wife and five children, a brother and sister and a host of friends who mourn his loss. His remains were laid to rest in the Scotts Fork cemetery.

PRIVILEGES AT AUCTION.

Privileges for soft drinks and other stands for the Fourth of July celebration, will be sold to the highest bidder at Paint Lick, Friday afternoon at two o'clock.

EXAMINING TRIAL NOW ON.

As we go to press, the examining trial of Asbie Sebastian, charged with killing Zack Simpson, is being held in the upper court room of the court house. The town is crowded with friends and relatives of both parties and a number of witnesses will be examined, which will probably take up most of the day.

OUT AGAIN, IN AGAIN.

William Gaffney, charged with house breaking and sent to jail several weeks ago to await the action of the next grand jury, gave Uncle Dave Ross the slip last Monday night and made a hasty get-away. Sheriff Tom Ballard was soon on his trail however and in three hours captured him near his home at Flatwoods and returned him to jail.

PAINT LICK WILL CELEBRATE

Patriotism, Preparedness, Franks and Play will be the order of the day at Paint Lick next Tuesday when that gay little city and her hospitable people open the gates and invite the surrounding country to help them enjoy the "Glorious Fourth." Fun and frolic will be unrestrained and those who stay at home will miss something.

The Danville Messenger has on a new dress and has changed its form, we are sure it must belong to the feminine gender, so rapid, complete and beautiful has been the change. It is now set in ten point type and Bangs, to say nothing of some of his friends, can read it without his "specks."

DECLARATION IMPORT- ANT IN HISTORY.

We are approaching the end of the first half of the second century since that band of patriots went before the civilized world with the Declaration of Independence, appealing to mankind as a jury for a verdict between the American colonies and the government of Great Britain. The verdict in favor of human rights immediately created public opinion against the rule of tyrants. Today the rights of man cover the earth as the waters the sea and the world owes this marvelous development to those patriots who dared to defy England and a king.

A NEW HEMP

BREAKING MACHINE.

A Paris Ky. man has just invented a hemp breaking machine which, of course "breaks out the fibre faster, cheaper and better" than the old hand brake. The farmer however will "have to be shown", for it is almost an annual occurrence for such an invention to make its appearance, and the farmer invariably is compelled to return to the time honored hand power machine.

With the present increased crop and the accompanying increase in price, the growers would welcome the advent of some machine that would get out the fiber more rapidly and with less expense.

LANCASTER BOYS EM- PLOYED IN OHIO CITY.

At least a dozen Lancaster young men, most of them not yet through school, are at work in Akron O. during the summer months. The majority of them are employed by the big Goodrich Rubber Co., one of the largest manufacturers of rubber products in the country. Mr. Givens P. Terrill is dean of the Lancaster force, and also has a good position with the Goodrich people. The boys are all "making good", working hard, making good salaries, and many of them have already won well earned promotions, accompanied by increase of salary. While it is not "old Kentucky" and the biscuit served at their meals (?) are not just like "mother used to make", yet they are all satisfied and are sticking close to their jobs and winning unstinted commendation from their employers.

The following being a list of those would-be self-supporters:—Glass Carrier, Zan Robinson, Paul Elliott, William Mac Elliott, Joe Kavanaugh, Allen Johnson, James Woods, John Eldridge, Willie Bell West, Bert Embury and Rice Terrill.

LOTS OF HEMP.

GOVERNMENT CONTRACTS WITH PARIS FIRM FOR ONE HUNDRED TONS.

One of the largest deals in hemp made in Kentucky in many years was closed last week when E. F. Spears & Sons, of Paris, signed a contract with the United States government to furnish them over one hundred tons of doubled dressed hemp for a sum exceeding seventy-five thousand dollars. All the hemp contracted for is now in the hands of the Paris firm and shipment will begin at once. The containing bidders were Winchester firms. It is claimed that this sale will not affect the future price of hemp as it is said the demand for the coming crop, which will be unusually large will be the greatest in the history of the industry. The yield in Bourbon county alone this season will amount to over twelve hundred acres.

U. S. SENATORS

HONOR THE MEMORY OF WILLIAM O. BRADLEY.

On last Saturday, notwithstanding the urgency of war resolutions and the press of other business incidents to these troublous times the U. S. Senate paused to do honor to the memory of the late Senator W. O. Bradley. Party lines were obliterated for the time being, political differences were laid aside and all joined in doing honor to the memory of Kentucky's illustrious son. Senator Ollie M. James opened the ceremonies, and they were closed by a tribute from Sen. J. C. W. Beckham, who after a close of his remarks, moved the assembly adjourn in honor of Sen. Bradley's memory. Senators Kern, of Indiana, Smoot, of Utah, Works of California, Townsend of Michigan, Nelson of Minnesota and Warren of Wyoming, republicans, and Hamilton of Illinois, Williams of Mississippi, Overman of North Carolina and Sens. James and Beckham of Kentucky took part in the memorial services, while most of the Kentucky members and a number of prominent visitors were present in the Senate chamber. Dr. John G. South and wife the latter the daughter of Sen. Bradley of Frankfort, Ky. Mr. E. C. Barnard, who married Mrs. Juliet Rogers, a niece of the Senator, together with many Kentucky friends were in the galleries during the proceeding.

The ceremonies were impressive, his old colleagues and associates, men who have reached the top rank in political life, irrespective of their political faith, joined in paying tribute to the memory of the man, who was termed by one of their number as "one of the most genial of men, a prince among his fellows, a distinguished lawyer, a great orator and a profound statesman, whose memory would be cherished as he was loved in life."

ENLIST IF YOU

ARE DISSATISFIED

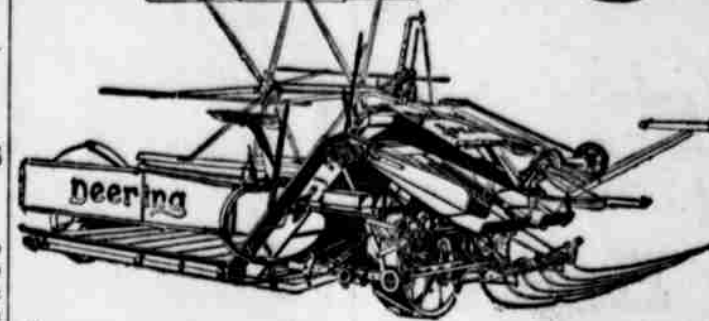

WITH PRESIDENT WILSON'S MEXICAN POLICY, OR SHUT UP.

Recruiting officers were here from Richmond last Saturday seeking to enlist men to fill out the Richmond company, which will in all likelihood, along with other Kentucky troops, be sent to the border and perhaps see service in Mexico in the event of war. They succeeded in securing four recruits at this place.

A notable incident of their visit was the fact that among those who answered the call were none of those who are so frequently heard to make adverse criticism of the policy of the Administration toward our southern neighbor. There are a great many who are heard to long and loudly exclaim against "watchful waiting", to proclaim what would have happened had "so-and-so been present", or to declare that we should have long since have declared war against our rebellion ridden neighbors, but when the call came and they were given an opportunity to show their patriotism by upholding a doctrine which they have so long advocated, verbally, they sought quick and sure cover. These people are anxious for war, provided always that someone else does the fighting, but when the time comes they are not to be found.

Our president has sought by all honorable means to lead this country along paths of peace, has exercised much forbearance, during all of which time these biantants have been proclaiming for war, and now when forbearance has ceased to be a virtue, and there seems a probability of hostilities, they who we might first expect to join the ranks to protect their country and avenge its wrongs, have sought the dark places away from the call of the bugle and the eye of their fellow man.
